We are currently updating our address file to coincide with the U.S. Postal requirements and ask that you check to see if we have your current name and mailing address. You can make the changes directly on your water bill and return it with your payment. When returning your payment, remember to use our post office box number 188 in our address. If possible, please provide a phone number(s) to contact you in case of an emergency. Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
